

United States Government

NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

Office of the Executive Secretary

1015 Half Street, SE

Washington, DC 20570

June 22, 2020

Re: Local 147, Laborers' International Union of North America (Northeast Remsco Construction, Inc.)
Case 02-CB-231600

ORDER

The motion to reconsider the denial of the pro se Charging Party's request for an extension of time is GRANTED IN PART. The request sought a 90-day extension of time to file Exceptions and a Brief in Support of Exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Decision, from June 19, 2020, the due date, to September 17, 2020. Within an hour of this office's issuance of a letter denying the request, Counsel for the General Counsel indicated by letter that she did not oppose a 30-day extension. In light of these unusual circumstances, the due date for the receipt in Washington, D.C. of Exceptions and Briefs in Support of Exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Decision is extended by 30 days, to July 20, 2020. This extension of time to file exceptions and briefs in support of exceptions applies to all parties. Please note that unless unforeseeable circumstances are presented, additional extension requests to file exceptions and supporting briefs will be denied.¹

/s/ Farah Z. Qureshi
Deputy Executive Secretary

cc: Parties
Region

¹ Pursuant to Section 102.5(c) of the NLRB's Rules and Regulations, all documents filed in cases before the Agency must be filed electronically at www.nlrb.gov unless the party filing in hard copy files an accompanying statement explaining why the party does not have access to the means for filing electronically or why filing electronically would impose an undue burden. When a document is E-Filed with the Agency, the documents should not also be sent to the Board by email or in hard copy. Documents E-Filed with the Agency should be served on the other parties to the case (including Counsel for the General Counsel) by email if possible. Please see 102.5(f) for further information about service of documents.